BOOK REVIEWS

Acoustic emission 101
Advanced strength and applied stress analysis 101
Assuring the structural integrity of steel reactor pressure vessels 158
Atlas of polymer damage/Atlas of metal damage 217
Crack arrest methodology and applications 216
Creep analysis 220
Deformation and fracture of solids 41
Durability of building materials and components 219
Engineering aspects of creep 157
Engineering design 218
Engineering materials 219
Experimental stress analysis 102
Heat treatment '79 220
Influence of environment on fatigue 157
Materials, experimentation and design in fatigue 216
Materials science in engineering 41
Measurement of crack length and shape during fracture and fatigue 157
Mechanical behaviour of materials 102
Metal fatigue in engineering 103
Springs – troubleshooting and failure analysis 103
Stress analysis of polymers 42

RESEARCH REPORT

Research into conditions for the development of defects in rotor discs
V. A. Volkov, A. B. Sochivko and E. Ju. Nefedjev 85

TITLES

Titles of published papers are listed alphabetically, ignoring definite and indefinite articles.

Accelerated fatigue testing method
A. Rotem 211

Assessment of mechanical behaviour, microstructure and critical conditions of welded commercial purity titanium
R. L. Jones and T. V. Duggan 89

Comparative thermal fatigue resistance of several oxide dispersion strengthened alloys
J. D. Whittenberger and P. T. Bizon 173

Comparison of fatigue damage detection in carbon and glass fibre/epoxy composite materials by acoustic emission
J. Holt and P. J. Worthington 31

Durability analysis of machinery components
J. Kogan 27

Effect of martensite content on the fatigue of dual-phase steel
A. M. Sherman and R. G. Davies 36

Environmental dynamic fatigue crack propagation in high density polyethylene – an empirical modelling approach
H. M. El-Hakeem and L. E. Culver 3

Fatigue fracture mechanics analysis of offshore structures
W. D. Dover 52

Fatigue integrity assessment
T. V. Duggan 61

Fracture mechanics and testing of steel for large rotors
A. Freddi 71

Growth of surface fatigue cracks in a steel plate
O. Vosikovsky and A. Rivard 111

Influence of heat treatment on low frequency fatigue crack growth rates for a marine steel tested in air and seawater
B. F. Jones 167

Influence of martensite carbon content on the cyclic properties of dual-phase steel
A. M. Sherman and R. G. Davies 195

Influence of notch root radius on ductile rupture fracture toughness evaluation with Charpy-V type specimens
R. Roberti, G. Silva, D. Firrao and B. De Benedetti 133

Investigation of the strength and cyclic fracture toughness of BT-16 titanium alloy subjected to thermal cycling simulating diffusion welding
A. Z. Pimenova, A. P. Ternovskii and S. V. Ivanov 205

New approach to determination of fracture toughness under conditions of elastic/plastic behaviour of materials
V. S. Ivanova, L. I. Maslov and A. D. Zotov 77

Note on fatal aircraft accidents involving metal fatigue
G. S. Campbell 181

Parameters and micromechanisms of fatigue crack growth in sheet magnesium alloy samples
N. M. Grinberg and V. A. Serdyuk 143

Probability of fatigue failure as a statistic
A. Tsurui 125

Rate sensit

Rate sensitivity of mechanical properties and fracture characteristics of two-phase titanium alloys subjected to thermal cycles of diffusion welding
A. Z. Pimenova 199

Relationship betweeen fatigue crack behaviour and microstructure in 7175 aluminium alloy
P. J. E. Forsyth and A. W. Bowen 17

Slip character and fatigue life of copper single crystals in air and in vacuum
A. I. Alekseev 129

Some aspects of fatigue relative to cyclic yield stress
M. T. Weng 187

Stress intensity factors for fatigue cracking of round bars
A. S. Salah el din and J. M. Lovegrove 117

Tests to determine the fatigue strength of steel castings containing shrinkage
L. P. Pook, A. F. Greenan, M. S. Found and W. J. Jackson 149

Upper and lower bounds for the lengths of non-propagating cracks
A. D. Cameron and R. A. Smith 9
